BRICKTOWN BANJO BASH

Friday • April 17, 2009 • 5:30PM • 11:00PM

The BRICKTOWN BANJO BASH will be an informal night of banjo performances and jam sessions in multiple venues all within easy walking distance throughout Bricktown. The event is free to banjo fans and the general public alike. Performances will take place in the lounge/bar areas of the venues listed below. While each of these venues typically hosts small acoustic musical groups in these areas, keep in mind that seating is limited and available on a first come-first served basis.
